8 October 2010, Belgium – RealDolmen, an independent single source ICT solutions provider and knowledge company, has won the award for 'Citrix Largest XenDesktop Deployment Belux' during the recent Citrix synergy 2010 event in Berlin.

Koen Booghmans, Business Development Manager Frontend Solutions at RealDolmen:

"Virtualisation has surged in popularity, as our customers increasingly embrace the technology as a way to offer a more efficient IT service, reduce costs and improve security. It is a privilege to be honoured by Citrix with this prestigious award. It is clear evidence that the strength of our partnership, we are the only Platinum Citrix Solution Advisor in the Belux, is benefiting our mutual customers across a broad set of product lines."

André Lodewijks, Channel Manager Benelux at Citrix Systems says:

"The desktop of the future is finally here and it's available anywhere, anytime and from any device. It's great to see RealDolmen being honoured for its contribution, confirming once again that in an era where users are demanding more flexibility and greater power at a reduced cost, the latest generation of virtualised services is a working reality."

The accolade was presented during the award ceremony at Synergy Berlin, Citrix first global event hosted in Europe, on October 4th.
